

Environmental Services Commission Vacancy

The City of Bellevue is Seeking Candidates for a Vacancy On its Environmental Services Commission.

The City's Environmental Services Commission acts in an advisory capacity to the City Council. With respect to the City's water, sewer, storm and surface water and solid waste utility programs, the Commission may hold public hearings, make such studies, analyses and reports, and review, advise and make recommendations to the Council, as needed, regarding:

1. Short-term and long-term planning;
2. Annual budgets;
3. Rates and rate structures;
4. Rate assistance programs
5. Capital Investment Program financing proposals;
6. Contracts for City-provided wholesale and retail;
7. City policies directly related to utility functions;
8. Ordinances and resolutions necessary to carry out assigned duties and responsibilities;
9. Any other activities that the Council may so direct; and,
10. Coordination of duties with other Council-appointed boards, commissions or committees, as appropriate.

Commissioners must reside within the City or within the City's service area for either the water or sewer system. The Commission meets the first Thursday of each month at 7 PM at City Hall.

Interested citizens may pick up a Community Service Application from the City Clerk's Office or the Service First Desk in City Hall, as well as in the Bellevue Regional Library, the Lake Hills Library and the Mini-City Hall at Crossroads Shopping Center.
